

Sasha (Paul Dempsey, 2009)

Your eyes so deep and dark
They reside on the other side
Of mystery
You're covered in a façade
It must be hard to be on guard
Constantly

Sasha, Sasha
There's one thing
I need you to do
Sasha, Sasha
Please show me the
Loving side of you

Way behind the curtain
Lies were disguised
So easily
A lifetime of winters
Never told the bitter cold
Won't always be

Your castles are gone
Let the ice melt and what was felt
Will rush away
Take hold of my hand
All you need is to let me lead
It will be okay

Sasha, feel the sun, don't turn and run
Let me be the one that sees you shine
There's no need to hide just show your loving side
Sasha, just give me a sign

Sasha, Sasha
There's one thing
I need you to do
Sasha, Sasha
Please show me the
Loving side of you
